SEATTLE.

Cherries are ripe in Seattle back yards, and the robins are having the time of their lives feasting on them. When the rightful owners of the trees go out to pick cherries, the little red-vested gentlemen hop around and look on indignantly, with their heads on one side. It is plain that they want to put a sign "no trespassing" on the trees.

While attending a meeting of the clerics at the home of Rev. Mr. Arney at Kent recently, Dr. Hanson saw some cherry trees fully three feet in diameter, and heavily loaded with fruit. He had never before seen cherry trees of that size.

Mrs. Pauline Gustin left the evening of June 23d for Chicago, over the Oregon and Washington road. About a dozen of her friends saw her off and wished her god-speed. She will visit her mother, whom she has not seen for thirty-eight years, and also expects to meet some of her old Chicago friends.

Mrs. Claire Reeves recently gave a birthday party for her daughter, Alice, who is now fifteen. Half a dozen of Alice's chums were present, and she received some pretty gifts.

Mrs. Victoria Smith has a very congenial job as housekeeper for a family of grown-ups, every member of which is employed. She has plenty of leisure time and is well paid.

Mrs. W. E. Brown got up a picnic at Ballard recently, to celebrate the birthday of August Koberstein. Only Ballard residents were invited, with one or two exceptions. The same day the Bodleys and Dorteros had a picnic at Alki, in honor of a visiting lady from Minnesota whose name we did not get.

Miss Doris Thomson, of Wenatchee, is now in town with her mother, and will remain during the warm weather. The summer season here is very beneficial to her mother's rheumatism.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skoglund, of Spokane, their eight-year-old daughter, Mildred, and five-year-old son, Peter, were in town over the Fourth. They motored up from Portland in their Essex coach. John has three weeks' vacation, and must be back in Spokane by Saturday. The family is in splendid health and spirits, and the children growing rapidly.

While motoring about, John is assisting Dr. Hanson by making collections for the E. M. Gallaudet Memorial Fund.

Mrs. Belle Bergh is now in Wisconsin, visiting her mother, who is well over ninety years of age and blind.

Otis Zentzis works on a farm at Plaza, Washington, for a well-to-do man. He has a fine home of his own, and married a Wisconsin girl three years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Winchell live on a rented farm at Dover, Idaho, and Edgar works in a sawmill. A daughter was born to them last winter. Congratulations!

Henry Laner, of Spokane, is a very neat and expert cabinet maker, and an article praising his work recently appeared in the Chronicle. Recently Henry brought quite a number of small chicks, and visions of eggs they would one day lay flitted before his eyes. But as they got larger they all turned out to be roosters.

Mrs. Clara O'Leary is very much interested in the Woman's Division of the Moose Lodge, and gives much time and work to it. Her fine management has resulted in stimulated interest and a largely increased membership. Mrs. O'Leary was called to Willmar, Minn., about a month ago, by the death of her mother. She later went to Chicago to attend a W. O. M. L. Convention, and is expected back in Spokane in a few days.

The many friends of Jack Sackville-West and his charming wife gave them a surprise party in Spokane on June 17th, their tenth anniversary, and brought many useful tin gifts. Jack is now drafting for three architectural firms. He does good and careful work, and his services are always in demand.

Andy Genner is working on the Los Angeles Herald.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hagadorn are now settled at Aberdeen, and Lamir

Palmer is living with them. Lamir will go to work at the sawmill, where John has a job, beginning today.

Erve Chambers and Norman Barney have adjoining farms near Spokane, and are doing well. They both work at a sash and door factory.

Henry Silk and John Skoglund, of Spokane, are cronies, and go on weekly fishing trips together. Recently, accompanied by Erve Chambers, they went to Brown Lake, and after fishing a while walked along a narrow path to King's Lake, five miles distant, where the sport was better. Together they landed 40 trout, each about 12 inches in length.

Miss Diane Ingraham is now visiting relatives in Illinois, and will be away about three months.

We learn with surprise that our erstwhile resident, Mr. Nicholas Struck, is now in Spokane, where he is with the C. W. Hill Printing Company. Mrs. Struck is with him, and will remain till the middle of August. She is a teacher in the Berkeley School, and brought her car up from California. We understand that Mr. Struck has a year's contract with his present company, so we shall be able to locate him for some months to come.

John Skoglund considers the Olympic the most beautiful highway he has traversed, and was quite enthusiastic about the scenery. On his present vacation he will visit Vancouver, Portland, Seattle, Port Angeles, Hood's Canal and Yakima.

Dr. and Mrs. Hanson quite forgot their twenty-seventh wedding anniversary last week, till they were reminded of it by a telegram of congratulation from Marion. The telegram came from Washington, D. C., where Marion is spending a fortnight. She is greatly impressed by the beauties of our National Capital. She visited Gallaudet and met Dr. and Mrs. Hall. The latter showed her over the college. Douglas Craig, the colored man who has been at Gallaudet so many years, told her that he remembered when her father was there as a student.

The Fourth of July picnic was held on Monday, at Alki this year, with Claire Reeves in charge as chairman. About sixty were present. The day was wonderful, with a brilliant blue sky, so that the snow-capped Olympics could not be seen across the dark blue waters of the sound. After lunch, the usual program of games took place. There was a game of base-ball between two picked teams. The batteries were Sanders and Hagadorn, and Bradbury and Wilson, and the latter won by 7 to 6. L. O. Christenson umpired the game.

The list of races and winners is given below:

Ladies' 30 yard race—Mrs. J. B. Wilson, first, and Mrs. Brinkman, second.

Men's 100 yard dash—Candill, 1st; and Abrahamson, second.

Fat men's race—Haire, first, and Waugh, 2d.

Potato race—Miss Nation, 1st; Mrs. Wilson, 2d.

Crawfish race—Candill, 1st; Abrahamson, 2d.

The prizes were all small cash awards.

Ralph Shade, of Dubuque, Iowa, is visiting relatives in Seattle, and plans to see Alaska before returning home. He has travelled extensively, and visited Mexico and the Panama Canal.

Mr. Wainscot, late boys' supervisor at Salem, Oregon, has secured work with the Wheeler and Osgood door factory at Tacoma, and likes it there. He attended the Frat meeting Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Spieler have moved to Seattle from Portland, and intend to stay here if business conditions are favorable.

John Walton, who owns a farm of 160 acres at Deverton, Saskatchewan, Canada, was a Seattle visitor on the Fourth and attended the Frat meeting Saturday. He has been in Portland and Vancouver over two years. He is over 60 years old, and intends to sell his farm in Canada and move to the Pacific Coast, as he likes the climate here much better.

Mr. J. A. Key, of Tacoma, had his right wrist broken while cranking his Ford over a month ago, but hopes to be able to return to work soon.

Mrs. L. H. Carlson, of Portland, attended our picnic, July 5th. She was formerly Mrs. Roy Hawley. Her husband is a hearing man, employed as shipping clerk in a furniture factory in Portland.

Miss Julia Dodd, of Portland, came to our picnic and took in some of the sights of Seattle over the Fourth. She has been a teacher in the Vancouver School, and returns there in the fall as supervisor of the small girls.

Mrs. Arthur Classen, of Akron, Ohio, has been with her sister in Monroe since her arrival from the east about two weeks ago. She came to Seattle Saturday, and was the guest over night of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Root. Mrs. Classen is a graduate of the Vancouver School, and her maiden name was Letha Steuennagle. She is the same winning girl that we remember of old, and we are all very glad to see her again. She did not stay over for the picnic, as her two small children were in Monroe with her sister, but she has promised to come for several days with them before she returns east, and give us all a chance of seeing her.

Greensburg, Pa.

"Russ" Diehl and "Silver Tongued Roy" Nordstrom, recently returned from an eventful motorcycle trip to Harrisburg, where they were the guests of the former's relatives over the week-end.

Marion Allen, of New Kensington, a graduate from the Edgewood School, is for the present time employed as a linotype operator in one of the job printing establishments at the above named town.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry O. Fox spent Independence Day as the guests of Mrs. Fox's mother, who has not been in good health for a long period.

Your scribe is and has been wrestling with an attack of neuritis in his right arm. In spite of this affliction, he is still able to hold cases in the job department of the Tribune-Review Publishing Company.

Big Jim Princlar spend his leisure time motoreycling.

The Fourth of July, in which the silents held an outing on the James G. Poole farm, adjoining Hunker, was a rainy and disagreeable one. However, James Poole, generously allowed them the use of his old-fashioned country home, where they evidently enjoyed the "cats"—dinner and supper.

Those who participated: Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Misses Loretta Brown, Ella Anderson, Birdie King, Thelma Miller and Josephine Hartzell, Mrs. Mary A. Gettins and Mrs. Collins, and Messrs. Harry Zahn, Samuel Rogalsky, Marion Allen, James B. Smith, James Princlar, Edward Boyer, Russell Diehl, Hugh Hartzell, and ye humble servant.

Among the silents that propose to attend the annual meeting of the P. S. A. D. in Mt. Airy: Misses Bernice King, Ella Anderson, Mrs. James G. Poole, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith, Harry Zahn, Russell Diehl, Marion Allen, Fred Connor, and a few other whose names the writer can not remember.

Hugh E. Hartzell and his sister, Josephine, live on a farm about four miles north of Ligonier. It was the reporter's pleasure to form their acquaintances. They are both graduates of the Edgewood School.

On Friday evening, July 2d, Fred Connor and Samuel Rogalsky, and Misses Ella Anderson and Loretta Brown, all of Pittsburgh, motored to Greensburg and visited with Mr. and Mrs. Harold Smith at their home. Of course, Russell Diehl and "Rex" were there. They visited the Tribune-Review office, and watched with interest the operating of the linotype machines.

OMAHA

The Baseball game advertised between Council Bluffs and Omaha divisions for the afternoon of May 29th, resulted in victory for the local boys by the score of 13 to 11. Indoor rules were followed, and a close and exciting game gave pleasure to a large crowd in attendance, many of them from distant points.

The day was ideal, and the drive from a distance was made inviting for a number from as far as Des Moines and Cornig.

Besides the ball game, a program of sports was arranged. Nick Peterson won the 100-yd. dash over a large field. Nick also captured the greased pig at the end of the day, getting a strangle hold on the fierce animal before the latter could get well started into action. Miss Bilger won the sack race for girls, and tied with Mrs. Effie Anderson in the 50-yd. dash. Mande Peck proved the most adept at the bottle filling game, and was adjudged the winner. Bernard Gultorf won in the pillow fight.

It was pleasing to see the large number of out-of-town visitors in attendance. Several of them took advantage of the occasion to visit their old school for the first time in many years. Among the visitors, were noted the following:

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson and son, Verne, Des Moines; Mr. John M. Thompson, Cornig; the Hays brothers, Brooks; Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Rogers and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rogers, Fontenelle; Mr. and Mrs. Anton Slikkerveer and Mr. Fred O'Donnell, Shenandoah; Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Moore, Botna; Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Kesterson, Castana; Mr. Morris Fahr, Oskaloosa; Mrs. Charles Stanek, Orient; Miss Anna Johns, Des Moines; Mrs. H. Coffman, Los Angeles, California; Mr. and Mrs. Gilson, Glenwood; Mr. Joshua Stinton, Struble; Lyman Hull, Maryville, Mo.—Iowa Hawkeye.

Midwest Chapter of the Gallaudet College Alumni Association closed its season, Saturday evening, July 5th, with a pleasant picnic, supper and meeting, at the parental home of Mrs. Emma Seely, in Bellevue. A bountiful supper was served on the lawn, followed by the business meeting and election of officers for next year. Mrs. Effie W. Anderson was unanimously re-elected president. Mr. Eugene McConnell was chosen vice-president; and Mrs. Emma Seely, secretary-treasurer.

In order to boost the E. M. Gallaudet Memorial Fund, Midwest Chapter members pledged themselves each to raise ten dollars for the Iowa and Nebraska quotas, in the nature of a personal quota. Honorable mention will be accorded the one who is first to raise his or her personal quota. Members thus, pledged immediately began to devise ways and means, and several ingenious schemes were brought out, which will certainly produce the desired result.—Iowa Hawkeye.

A very pretty wedding was that of Mrs. Avadna Barnes Gomme and James R. Jelinek, Wednesday evening, June 9th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry G. Long, in Dundee. Only immediate relatives and a few close friends were present. There was a floral arch across the stairway leading into the living-room, where the wedding party entered to the strains of "Oh, promise me." The bridal couple stood before the fireplace, which was a mass of flowers, and Mr. and Mrs. Long stood up with them, the Rev. Kellinson, of the Council Bluffs First Christian Church, officiated and Miss Grace Long interpreted. The ring ceremony was used, and the groom's gift to the bride was beautiful pearl choker. Congratulations and best wishes were showered on the happy couple.

Delicious crushed strawberry sundae and cakes were served. The wedding cake, the gift of Mr. Oscar Kuehne, Mr. Jelinek's boss, was a skillful product from a master baker. It was trimmed in white, pink and gold, symbolizing purity, prosperity and health. The wedding gifts were many and beautiful. Miss Grace Long gave a couple solo dances and little four year old Betty Gomme and Master Homer R. Long rendered the Charleston in true Southern fashion.

Mr. and Mrs. Jelinek were given a miscellaneous shower, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Long, on Tuesday, June 15th. A mock wedding was featured with Robert W. Mullin as the bride; Miss Mary Dobson as the groom; Miss Edith Anderson as the bride's father; Eugene Fry, bridesmaid, Miss Marie Greer, bestman and Robert E. Dobson, ring bearer. Mr. H. G. Long was the minister, and the costumes were as grotesque as could be, the gowns of the "ladies" being trimmed with all kinds of vegetables and the bride's bouquet was a head of cabbage. A number of useful articles were given Mr. and Mrs. Jelinek. The thirty guests were then treated to ice cream and cake.

Dr. J. Schuyler Long was the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Long at dinner Thursday, June 24th. He left the following week with his daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Thompson, for Fairbault, Minn., to visit Supt. and Mrs. Elwood Stevenson. Mrs. J. S. Long left June 14th, for Los Angeles, Cal., for the summer.

HAL AND MEL.

IN DIXIELAND.

CHESTER, S. C.—After an absence of something like forty years, broken by an occasional visit—the last about eighteen years ago—this writer is now back in the "old home town," revisiting the scenes of our childhood.

Chester is the county seat of Chester County, situated in the northern part of the State, midway between Charlotte, N. C., and Columbia, S. C., and has a population of between eight and nine thousand. The town is one of the oldest towns in the State, founded long before the Civil War, and has grown very slowly until within recent years. With a few exceptions, the old portion of the town remains as we remember it fifty years ago. The coming of the cotton mills—three of them—has built up the outlying sections into various mill districts. These cotton mills have all been built within the past fifteen years, and has helped to make Chester quite a thriving little town, and the people who have stuck to the old town, all seem thrifty and well-to-do.

Chester is a lovely little place, situated upon a hill and is very quiet and peaceful, vastly different from the rush, bustle and noise of a big city like Atlanta. No street cars here to run after. Plenty of automobiles, but the traffic is well regulated, and everybody obeys the traffic laws and one does not have to dodge for their lives everytime they venture out upon the streets, as we have been accustomed to doing in Atlanta. The streets here are all wide and paved with asphalt, shaded on each side by fine old oaks and water elms, making beautiful driveways. There are also well-kept highways leading in every direction out of town. The highways in this State appear to us to be far superior to some of those in Georgia.

Of the old home place, where this scribe was born and reared, but little remains that we were able to recognize. That portion of the town, which was once occupied by stately Southern ante bellum homes and fine old plantations, is now cotton mill communities. We were only able to recognize the place where we were born from a large crepe myrtle tree, which stood in our front yard, and is still there, and by an old well two of our brothers dug when they were boys. The house in which we were born has been built onto and moved back several blocks, only a faint resemblance of the original dwelling now remains. Revisiting these old landmarks recall memories both sad and pleasant of days long passed, when quite a large family of us were all together here in the home of our ancestors. One can never realize the changes that time brings about, until they return after an absence of many years to the place they once called home.

Since coming down here, our daughter, who accompanied us on the trip, has been busy tracing up our ancestry, and has traced back as far as our great, great grandfather on one side, who emigrated to Virginia from Holland in the latter part of the 17th century. Our grandfather moved from Virginia to South Carolina, shortly after the birth of this scribe's father and became the editor of the first newspaper ever printed in Newberry, S. C. It was from him, we suppose, that we inherited our love for printers ink. Our father, the late William Oliver Timme, was one of the pioneer citizens of Chester, noted widely for his originality and wit. He was educated for a lawyer, but never practiced that profession, preferring the saddle and harness business, in which he was engaged up to the time of his death, nineteen years ago. His grandchildren are still quite numerous here, and are leading citizens of this town. It is these children and a sister-in-law that we are now visiting. On the other side, we can trace our ancestors back to the Mayflower, but what's the use? While we are proud of the blue blood of the Old South that flows in our veins, we realize that our readers would prefer to hear about what we, ourselves, are doing to make history.

One of the first of the South Carolina deaf that we have met, since coming down from Atlanta, was Mrs. M. J. Carter, who has for many years conducted the Carter House, at Winnsboro, one of, or if we are not mistaken, the only hotel of any importance in that town. Left a widow some sixteen years ago with five children, the oldest only eleven years old, Mrs. Carter, with no business training, but plenty of courage and determination, has accomplished something which 99 out of a hundred people blessed with their hearing and placed under similar circumstances could never have done. She has, by her own efforts, built up a splendid business, reared and educated her children, kept the family together and has managed to send the children to the leading colleges of this State, where they graduated with high honors. The youngest and last of the girl, is now a student at the well known Winthrop College at Rock Hill, and will graduate in two more years, then Mrs. Carter, who has been both father and mother to her brood, can take a rest. Mrs. Carter is a remarkable woman in many respects. Amidst her various other duties, she still finds time to take an active part in all matters pertaining to the deaf of her State. She is now the president of the South Carolina Association of the Deaf, the first and only woman so far as we know to serve in such a capacity in any of our State Association. We have always been partial to woman's work in the world of affairs, therefore in common everyday parlance, we wish to say: "We take off our hat to Mrs. Carter," and wish there were many others like her. Later on, we will have more to say about this brilliant and remarkable deaf woman.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Smoak, of Union, motored down to see us one day and we spent a very pleasant visit together. Mr. Smoak, who is the Secretary of the S. C. A. D., was on his way to Winnsboro to see Mrs. Carter to complete all arrangements for the Convention of the South Carolina Association, which will be held at Cedar Spring, August 4th to 7th. Mr. and Mrs. Smoak extended this scribe a cordial invitation to visit them at their home in Union, which we hope to be able to do later on, as we have long had a desire to see and gain first-hand information of Mr. Smoak's printing plant, which he has built up and conducted so very successfully for many years. We are also hoping to be able to attend the Convention at Cedar Spring, and be able to meet old friends and acquaintances and renew old friendship.

Of this State and its deaf, more anon.

NATIONAL ASSOCIATION OF THE DEAF.

WASHINGTON, AUGUST 9-14, 1926.

AGAIN!

To repeat what we have said variously and often, during the past two years—the Fifteenth Triennial Convention of the N. A. D. musters, in the city of Washington, on the ninth of August, present year and century, and millennium.

We of the Local Committee have done our utmost. We have striven early and late, and have left no stone unturned to make this the greatest, most festive, most productive gathering of the deaf in history.

In the night watches we have paid homage at the shrine of Mazda and have grown bow-legged walking the place in quest of ideas that might lead to greater pleasure and comfort for you who are to be our guests. In a word, we have seen our duty and have done it noble; we have done it nice and brown, and have wrapped it up in ten-pound packages—one for each of you, and you, and you. We are going to give you the time of your life. But you must come to Washington to get it.

Who's Who?

Are you coming? Echo answers—a whole lot—the whole caboodle of you. Exhibit A—The Schaub-Meagher Special from St. Louis and Chicago, via Pittsburgh. Its passenger list reads like a who's who of the western deaf. And then we must not forget the teeming silent populations of nearby cities—Baltimore, Philadelphia, York, Boston, Providence, Hartford—the list is endless! The Atlantic seaboard contains the densest concentration of the deaf in America, and they are practically at the door of Washington. You may bet your kale and your red-flannel shirt on the fact that the seaboard will be amply represented at the pow-wow here in August. And the South? The South is coming strong—companies, in divisions, in myriads. The West? The West can, as always, be relied upon to send a "out where the West begins," and points further to Hollywood. If there are not, all told, three thousand N. A. D.s in the Capital city on August 9th, this here publicity man will climb to the top of the Washington Monument, and there, standing on his ear, will publicly and with due ostentation, eat his straw hat, down to the last ant-hole.

HELP PASS THE PIE

'Tis sad, my brothers, but everyone does not read the JOURNAL. Sad but true. There are certain benighted individuals who are not hep to the enlightenment and mental beatifications conferred by it. But there are also people who eat pie for breakfast make their ablutions in the family wash-tub, and vote for Grant at every election. There are even people, who think "Movies" is the name of a horse liniment and a "Ford" is a place to cross a river. Probably they won't hear of the Washington convention till along in 1950, by which time tombstones will en rigle as chest ornaments for members of the local committee.

For the above various and multifarious reasons, we want you, gentle readers, to serve as deputy pie and publicity pabulum passers. When you meet one of the post-pleistocene, individuals mentioned above, don't put him gently out of his misery by bouncing a brick off his bean, but tell him about the Washington convention. Overcome evil with good.

This is your license to do business. Shake a leg! The watchword is

A PERTINENT QUERY.

41 North Eighth St.,
Colton, Cal., July 10, 1926.

DEAR EDITOR:

I want to call your attention to the fact that your JOURNAL has failed to give an account of the last days at Gallaudet College. Does your college correspondent think he is paid to amuse his fellow-students rather than to give news to your readers? I subscribed to your paper for the news which he is supposed to furnish.

Very truly yours,

MUTE DRIVERS PASSED AFTER SEVERE TESTS

STATE POLICE CERTIFY DEAF-MUTES AFTER SPECIAL TEST TO DETERMINE ALERTNESS AND NERVOUS REACTIONS.

On the theory that the less talking a driver of an automobile does, the better, and that deaf persons very often are more sensitive to traffic conditions than those who can hear, Superintendent Robert T. Hurley of the State police department said that it was the policy of his department to certify even deaf-mutes for motor vehicle operators' licenses, whenever they were able to convince the examiner that they could safely drive a car.

The statement was made in comment upon the case of Joseph Paradise of East Hartford, a deaf-mute, who was fined $10 and costs for speeding, by Justice Howard P. Dunham in the Wetherfield town court. Paradise had a genuine operator's license. Justice Dunham said however, that on his licenses for 1923 and 1924, which were shown in court, no defects in hearing or speech were noted, while on the license now in force the fact that he was deaf was written in.

Paradise was arrested for driving his car through the town of Wetherfield at a speed of fifty-eight miles an hour. Justice Dunham, by means of an interpreter, severely reprimanded the man, stating that such a speed was reckless for a man in possession of all his faculties, and especially reckless for him. It was said that Paradise was particularly adept in lip-reading and was able to understand the court room talk without the aid of an interpreter. The interpreter was a brother-in-law of Paradise.

According to Superintendent Hurley, the State police have dismissed dumbness as an advantage rather than an impediment in operating an automobile. He said that if some of the present day automobile sweethearts had deaf-mute for beaux, fewer accidents would occur.

But he stated that an applicant's deafness had always raised an interesting question. Examinations have established, he said, that in a large number of cases deafness has so increased the acuteness of nerve sensations that the deaf driver is more alert than one who can hear. He emphasized, however, that no deaf person had ever been given a license without a special examination of the effect of his inability to hear on his driving. Yet even under such tests, he admitted, that it was quite likely that a number of deaf-mutes were licensed operators. —Hartford Times, July 10.

FOR PRESIDENT OF THE N. A. D.

I present Alexander Lester Pach, of New York, a member of the Association of long standing; a conscientious and efficient worker in the ranks, in office-appointed and elective; a man of affairs; of acknowledged ability and courage; nationally known; personally popular; impartial; independent; the logical man to head the Association at this time. Inure a business administration for the Association by electing a business man to the presidency.

DEAF MAN KILLED

Deaf, Charles T. Pierson, 54, failed yesterday to hear the roar of a Pennsylvania Railroad express train near the station at Maplewood, N. J. He was crushed to death. —N. Y. Daily News, June 10.

Nobody can feel meaner or more cruel than a father who has taken the stand they can't afford something the family insists they must have.

CHICAGO.

Says the Jacksonville Journal:— Announcement was made of the resignation of T. V. Archer, as principal of the Illinois School for the Deaf. Miss Irene Sandberg has been appointed principal for the coming year. Miss Sandberg has been on the teaching staff of the Deaf-school for the past twelve years. For the past three years she has taught rhythm, ranking among the foremost teachers of that subject in the country. She has consented to give up her special work for one year until a new principal can be secured for the school.

Miss Amelia Demotte has been appointed supervising teacher of the advanced grades, and Miss Blanche Bailey has been appointed supervising teacher for the primary grades. These two positions have been created in order to secure more uniformity and efficiency in the two departments.

Charles Marshall has resigned as director of physical training for boys, and Robert Ehl has been appointed to the vacancy.

Miss Katherine Parker will be instructor in rhythm during next year. Said the Herald and Examiner of July 1st: "A pretty 25-year-old girl was run down and killed on early today after being stripped and attacked by two men, who took her away from her escort, J. J. Griffiths, 32. She was identified as Opal Woodard, a deaf-mute, employed at the Firestone rubber factory. Police announced warrants have been sworn out for the arrest of the two abductors."

Sam Goldberg was struck by an auto while dismounting from arolley on the 2d, and is still "out of his head." Several stitches were taken on various parts of his body.

W. E. Souder, of Washington, one of the committee in charge of the N. A. D. convention next month was struck by an auto in our loop, and badly hurt, on the same day as Goldberg. He was bandaged up and spent an extra night here, leaving for Washington on the 3d. I understand neither Souder nor Goldberg intend to prosecute the drivers in court. Fallamages seem certain if they do.

Mrs. James Boyer, of Freeport, committed suicide by swallowing poison, dying several days later on June 20th. She had plenty of money, a kind husband and happy family in fact everything except good health.

I. S. D. BAND MAKES GOOD ON TRAVELS

The Illinois School for the Deaf band has returned after a tour during which it won considerable recognition for itself and for the name of Jacksonville. The band visited Montreal for the International convention of Kiwanis clubs and attracted much attention there, a band of deaf-mutes being a great novelty.

The school officials are particularly proud of the showing made by the band at the Lions convention in Springfield, where they competed with two of the best bands of the State, all the musicians of which were normal. In the contest I. S. D. got third place; but they gave the others a run for their money, and averaged higher on general appearance than the winning band. Much credit is due to Fred Fancher the band leader. —Jacksonville Journal.

Grover Cleveland Farquhar, a teacher in the Missouri State School for the Deaf, is spending six weeks here, taking a course at the linotype school, and incidentally making his headquarters at the JOURNAL office. "Farry" will be remembered as the Grand Surprise of that ill-fated St. Paul convention two summers ago, and may some day be persuaded to run for office. His idea in mastering the linotype, is to work a few nights a week in the daily newspaper offices in Fulton, thereby eking out the meager salaries paid teachers (which have not kept pace with the increased cost of living.) "Farry" is a graduate of Gallaudet College, class of '13, and ran on the relay team at the University of Pennsylvania games.

Another dignitary who is making his temporary quarters at the local JOURNAL office is Robert Burns, '19, athletic coach at the Illinois State school. Burns is spending a busy three weeks lining up his team and schedule, buying the latest books on coaching, and in general preparing for a bigger and better "Jax." His main objective is a contract with the Bowen H. S., the game to be played in Chicago's new stadium, October 30th. There is a heavy demand for all dates in the stadium, but U. S. Senator Charles Deneen and Attorney General Oscar Carlstrom have gotten behind the Bowen-H. S. D. claim, and Burns will probably win out. A large delegation will accompany the team, including the band of 21 pieces, and it will go over big in the newspapers next October. Burns will attend the N. A. D. convention in Washington, D. C., August 9th to 14th. Will YOU? If not, why not?

The Glorious Fourth was no day to spend in town. Neither the Sac, nor the Pas put anything on. The Craigs had a select party at their summer cottage on Lake Delavan; and the Fredo Hymans at their cottage on Crystal Lake. Izzy Newman had another party at his summer home on the Indiana dunes. Others went to Fox Lake. Ho, hum! 'twas a dull day for stay-at-homes.

Quite a bunch of Chicagoans attended the Kalamazoo frat picnic in St. Joe, Mich., July 4th. Most of them crossed the lake in Goodrich steamers. They say fully twenty went on the midnight boat, July 3d, ten on the 9:30 morning boat, and ten on the 10:15 boat. Over two hundred are said to have attended the picnic. The $50 watch went to Tony Cybuck, of Detroit. Chairman John Cordano managed a lot of races and games, the majority being won by Mrs. Wm. Yoder, of Goshen, Ind., and Mrs. Moses Graff, of Kalamazoo, Mich.

Odell Ballman, who left us a month ago to live in Detroit, was host to four of his young Chicago oral friends, the week-end of June 20th, Ralph Weber, Albert Rensman, Forrest Hoffman and Carter Jennings. The five attended the boat excursion of "No. 2" there, that day.

Charles Kemp is back from a visit to Rochester, where they celebrated the 50th anniversary of the founding of the late Prof. Westervelt's famous school. Kemp delivered addresses before the divisions in Rochester and Utica, and reports an enjoyable time.

Francis P. Gibson got back on the 7th, from a few days, spent in Detroit and Windsor, on business and pleasure.

Mrs. Charles Kessler and husband left on a belated honeymoon, on the 10th, via the Canadian Pacific. By easy daylight stages, they will view the country, stopping over in Winnipeg, Banff, Calgary, Vancouver, Seattle, Portland, etc. From Portland, they trek back to visit Yellowstone Park, and the University of Montana, in Missoula—where Mrs. Kessler spent four summers studying. Thence they aim for California, and will return East, via the Grand Canyon of Arizona. Mrs. Kessler may resume her post at the Tennessee School in the fall, although her husband is set against that plan. Her 18-year-old son has come to Chicago and secured a good job.

The George Rileys, of Victoria, B. C., were expected here from Akron, on the 6th, but a telegram from the Rubber City states their little daughter's arm was badly burned in a Fourth of July accident, so their plans are uncertain.

Mrs. Philip Hasenstab is summering at her cottage on Lake Delavan, Wis., as is her daughter Grace and husband. Others at Delavan include the Craigs and the Charles Russells of LaSalle. The Russells will take the special train, leaving Union Station at 8:15 P. M., August 7th, for the N. A. D. convention in Washington. Are you? If not, why not? The round trip and all expenses can easily be made for $110.

The H. A. Molohons, instructors at our State school, left Jacksonville on the 2d in their Overland sedan, accompanied by their daughter, to spend a month with their son in Tucson, Arizona. Miss Molohon will teach in the Colorado school next fall.

Miss Emma Solberger of the State school left on the 9th, for a summer in Honolulu.

Loretta, daughter of the Ernest Reinkes, died on June 18th.

The William Hills received a baby girl May 9th.

Our popular former citizen, John C. Carlson, was married June 29th, in Houston, Texas, to a Miss Eliven Wren, of Indian Creek, Texas.

Mrs. Linda Brimble is around again after several weeks abed.

Miss Katherine Kilcoyne, a former teacher at the Elphetha School, is spending a few weeks here. She now teaches near Cincinnati, and is studying to become a nun.

Mrs. Louise Rutherford spent a week with her mother in Wichita, Kansas.

Mrs. Walter Whitson, while walking across a park, stepped in a hole and sprained her ankle.

The Herbert Gunners and three children spent the 4th in Milwaukee, revisiting the scenes of their honeymoon, 17 years ago. The Gunners' honeymoon—not the kids'.

June 30th, saw the season's last Susan Wesley monthly supper at the M. E. "Citadel," under management of Mrs. Meagher.

Fred Lee attended the reunion of the Catholic deaf in Milwaukee, the latter part of June.

Mrs. William O'Neil spent several days with her married daughter in Milwaukee.

"Our dog has six puppies; look in the closet and see," Morton Henry told his wife the other morning. Mrs. Henry rubbed her sleepy eyelids and went to see. A careful count revealed five puppies and an old shoe. (Henry will never hear the last of it.)

Dates ahead: July 31—Pas "lit." Aug. 7—Special train to N. A. D. convention.

J. FREDERICK MEAGHER.

Canadian Clippings

TORONTO TIDINGS

Mr. A. C. Shepherd, accompanied by his sister and a plumber, motored up to Wasago Beach on Dominion Day, where they prepared the Shepherd cottage for occupation later on.

Like a thunderbolt from the blue was the meeting between Mr. William C. Mackey and Mr. Russell Ryan in this city on July 1st. Many years ago, Russell who is a brother of Charles A. Ryan, of Woodstock, left for parts unknown, and during all this time he was neither heard of or seen. That was before the Great War broke out and when the European hostilities began he went overseas unknown to his people. After a lengthy sojourn in France, England and Germany, he returned here and bobbed up. The subsequent meeting between him and his beloved ones can better be imagined than described, an aspect of the Prodigal Son coloring.

Those who went to the Windsor Convention have returned to their city again greatly pleased with their trip to the Border Cities. Their two best redeeming features were in meeting old friends, whom they had not seen for many years, and making new acquaintances whom they had never seen before.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert W. Roberts, accompanied by their cousin, Minnie Roberts, and Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Holt, motored out and spent the week-end of July 3d with relatives and friends.

Mr. James W. Ross returned to his duty at the post office on July 5th, from his three weeks' annual vacation.

For the first time in nearly forty years, Mr. Neil A. McGillivray did not attend the Windsor Convention this time, thus breaking his long uninterrupted record of never missing a convention since the Ontario Association of the Deaf was formed two score years ago. It is not likely that such a record will ever be equalled in the future annals of this Association.

While her husband was away attending the Windsor Convention, Mrs. Gerald O'Brien hied away and whiled the time with her parents in Peterboro.

Mr. Asa Forrester gave a fine address at our Church on July 4th, on the "Quiet Life," declaring all believed on Him and allowed the ills of this life to pass by unobserved would be blessed with peaceful living.

Mr. Jamieson Bell only son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter, has left for a lengthy holiday with friends in Tara, Ont.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Harris have returned from their honeymoon trip and are now at home to their numerous friends at 114 St. Patrick Street.

Mr. Bob. McPherson has returned from his two week's holidays, which he enjoyed in Hamilton, Brantford, Windsor, Detroit and other places.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

Miss Gladys Johnson, the refined daughter and only child of Mr. and Mrs. Ursula Johnson, of Barrie, has taken a position as stenographer at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Mr. William Quinlan, of Stratford, is sending in his renewal for the JOURNAL, states he is well pleased with this paper. Another of the good many Canadian readers who vouch in the same way.

Before returning home from the meeting at Cookstown on June 27th, Mr. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills, put in the following day helping Mr. Samuel Averall with his new barn. A friend in need is a friend indeed.

While passing through Hamilton on their way to Jarvis on July 3d, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Roberts chanced to come across the Fisher family of London, also Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Taylor and Miss Mary James of Hamilton, on the Street. The sign language attracted their attention.

Among the crowd, who gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Averall at Cookstown on June 27th, where Mr. J. R. Byrne, of Toronto, gave two very good sermons, besides Mr. and Mrs. Averall and son Joffre, were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bowen and son Roy, and two daughters, Margaret and Esther (all of whom are deaf), of Cookstown, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills; Mr. and Mrs. David Lennox, of Phelpsston, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Beauford, of Beeton, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Jones and daughter, of Palgrave, and Miss Betty Lawrence, of Newton, Robinson.

Mrs. William Phillips, of Lisle, has returned home, after a pleasant visit to relatives and friends in Lindsay and Trenton. She was accompanied by her daughter and son-in-law, in the latter's car.

Mr. and Mrs. Sherrett and two daughters, Isabel and Susie, (the latter of whom had just returned from Belleville,) and Miss Barbara Aldcorn, all of Corbetton, were guests of the Middleton family in Horning Mills, on July 2d.

The new officers of the O. A. D. for 1926-28, are as follows: Mrs. Andrew Stewart Waggoner, of Hamilton, President (the first lady to be thus honored with the highest office); Mr. Arthur Hall Jaffray, of Toronto, is first Vice-President; Mr. Charles Adam Ryan, of Woodstock, is again the Treasurer, a position he held for many years; and Mr. Frank Edmund Harris, of Toronto, is the new Secretary, which he obtained by acclamation. The next convention will be held in Toronto, though the greater majority would prefer it held at our Alma Mater in Belleville.

Mr. Gordon Smith of Detroit, formerly of Riverview, Ont., and Miss Leona Jackson, of Oil Springs, were married on July 3d. We would give particulars if obtainable. Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hughes on their recent marriage. Mrs. Hughes' parents were formerly at the Belleville School, her mother being Miss Catherine Noonan, of Harper.

Mrs. Alice Wheeler and her daughter, Miss Mabel Wheeler, were invited by friends for a trip to Niagara Falls, the other day, and they report a most delightful time.

Mr. John R. Newell, of Milton West, was a welcome visitor among us over the week-end of June 26th. He also visited his brother, Dr. Newell, down in Balmy Beach.

Our annual bachelor visitor, Mr. William White, of Chicago, bobbed up in our midst on June 26th.

Messrs. Harry E. Grooms, Colin McLean and Asa Forrester, took a trip over the lake to Port Dalhousie, on June 26th, to arrange details for our annual picnic there on July 24th. Remember this date and come along for a good old time.

Mr. David Bayne, of Ottawa, breezed into this city on June 29th, and breezed out next day for Windsor, to attend the convention.

After the service, Dr. Gunn baptized three little children, as follows: Marion Jean Fraser, only child of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fraser, Jr.; Alfred John Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Smith, (nee Helen Fraser), and Dwight Luke Ford, second son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Ford. The two first named little ones are grandchildren of the late Mr. and Mrs. Philip Fraser, Sr., while little Master Ford is the first child of deaf parents to be baptized at our new fount.

Mr. Harold M. Hall, of Perth, was renewing old friends here for a few days before going to the Windsor Convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stein, (nee Rosie Malinsky,) who were married on May 23d, received among their numerous presents, a cheque for five hundred dollars from the bride's parents and a five hundred dollars bedroom suite from one of her aunts.

The young couple are very popular. Mr. Alton Dick, of Renfrew, is with us at present, and we hope his search for work here proves successful.

We regret to say that our old friends, Mr. A. A. McIntosh, of Oakville, is failing very fast, and is now at the Home for Incurables in this city.

Mr. Williams Quigley, of Oshawa, spent a few days of his three weeks' holidays in this city lately.

Miss Maude McKee, of Tiverton, was a guest of the Buchanan family for a few days the end of June, and then left for the Windsor Convention and visit friends up that way for two or three weeks.

Miss Florence Harris attended the Golds-Harris wedding in Kitchener on June 24th, and had a fine time.

We regret to say that Mrs. Fred Brown is not as well as she should be, following the birth of her little son.

STRATFORD STROKES

Messrs. Ross McIntyre and Norman Eickmeyer are still working in the rattan factory here and have had an extra hour added to their usual day's work.

Mr. and Mrs. William Quinlan motored to Mitchell to pay a visit to Mrs. William Pepper on June 20th, and had a good time.

KITCHENER KINDLINGS

Miss Elizabeth Carter, of Guelph, was a guest of Miss Margaret Golds for several days, prior to the latter's recent marriage and helped the bride-to-be to prepare her trosses for the big event on June 24th.

Mr. William Miller, of West Montrose, was out to our meeting on June 13th, for the first time this season, and received the glad hand from his many friends. Come often, old friend.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Williams and children, and Mrs. Charles Golds and son, Bob, went out to Speedville on June 27th, and spent the day very cheerfully with Mr. and Mrs. Isiah Nahrang.

Mrs. William Hagen and children, left on June 26th, for Foxboro, where they will spend their summer vacation with Mrs. Hagen's mother, Mrs. Hough. In the meantime poor Mr. Hagen is a grass-widower.

Master Wallace, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Nahrang, has returned from the Belleville School for the summer vacation. He looks much polished up in every way.

The many many friends of Miss Margaret Golds, caught her unaware one evening, lately, and presented her with a beautiful mahogany clock, as a token of love from her friends present, of whom they were about thirty-five.

A pathetic incident happened lately that should be a strong condemnation of the use of pure oralism in the teaching of the deaf. One Sunday some time ago, a mother, who had a deaf daughter brought up under pure oralism, brought her to our meeting to see if she could get any benefit and pleasure therefrom. In the past the daughter had been very lonesome, for she could not understand the lip-reading of her playmates nor could she understand the signs. When her mother saw how happy and contented we were when together, she resolved to bring her daughter every Sunday in order to get her acquainted not only with her many newfound friends, but our sign language as well. We did everything possible for her comfort, and in a very short time she seemed to be one of our own of long standing. One Sunday very recently the mother was seen to be going home with joyful tears running down her cheeks. No doubt, she had only wished her daughter had been brought up in the way we were, instead of spending so much on what has proven of no benefit to her whatever—pure oralism.

THEY'VE TAKEN THE PLUNGE

After months of ardent love making Little Daniel stepped in and put on the finishing touch on June 24th, when, at high noon, Miss Margaret, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Golds, of Kitchener, became the happy bride of Mr. Frank Earl Harris, only son of the late Mr. Harris and of Mrs. George Awford, of Simcoe. The Rev. A. S. Imrie performed the ceremony, at the home of the bride's parents, which was tastefully decorated with white carnations and ferns.

GENERAL GLEANINGS

Mr. John Taylor, of Singhampton, attended the wedding of a nephew on June 30th.

Many of our old timers will regret to hear of the death lately of Mr. Michael Murphy, of South March. He left the Belleville School away back in 1879, and was in his 63d year. He was well known as being of powerful physique in his day. Often putting down four opponents at a time.

Among those, who attended the meeting in Cookstown on June 27th, were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas A. Middleton, of Horning Mills.

Miss Elizabeth Carter, of Guelph, is now one of our bobbed hair flappers.

HERBERT W. ROBERTS.

DETROIT.

Miss Alice Leckie, of Sarnia, Canada, came up to attend the D. A. D. at Windsor, and remained for awhile to be the guest of Miss Clarissa Ford and Mrs. Sam Beckett.

Mr. Otto Buby and Mr. Clyde Beach were the guests of the Bussings at Coldwater, over the Fourth of July. Mr. Beach remained to bring his family back, as he is tired of baching. Mr. Buby was back for work Tuesday morning.

The Detroit Association of the Deaf at 636 Michigan Avenue, was asked by landlord to move—when convenient, and his agent took the task of locating a new hall for them. He found one and the officers signed a three-year lease for a large room, new and modern at 1745 Cass Avenue. They move this week, and on July 31st, a reception will be held for the members. For those who do not know, it is near the G. A. R. Hall and Jones Street. Let's boost the D. A. D. and see it grow.

Among the Detroiters we record the following:

Mr. Nellian Glaze, of Detroit, and Miss Louisa Duncan, of Hohenwald, Tenn., were married at the bride's home, June 24th. They will reside in Detroit.

Mr. B. Hartley, of Buffalo, and Miss Beatrice Drazba, of Detroit, July 6th. Particulars later.

Mrs. George Davis was given a very pleasant surprise party by forty of her friends July 11th, in honor of her birthday. She received some nice gifts. Her husband and Mrs. Tom Kerney engineered the affair.

Mr. Ivan Heymansson has returned from New York and was elated at a specialist verdict for his face. We rejoice with him, and hope that this treatment is a success.

A big crowd of Detroiters went over to Windsor to attend Fraters doing at Columbus Hall on Saturday evening. The Frats report big doings. We don't know, but the entertainment given for the ladies pleased us, and showed much thought and effort on part of directors and actors. The stage lighting was poor (true), but that was the blame of the builders, so why kick?

THREE HUNDRED DEAF-MUTES SING IN UNION

CINCINNATI, OHIO, July 11—Their fingers and hands moving in perfect unison and rhythm, 300 deaf-mutes "sang" the Star Spangled Banner at the formal opening today of an education center of the Adult Deaf Welfare Society.

The deaf "singer," with the usual attentiveness that marks their endeavors, progressed through the entire rendition of the patriotic refrain and at the conclusion were so thrilled that they clapped their hands in sheer delight.

Mrs. William Hoy, "soloist" of the occasion, directed the "singing."

While quite a blow is made of this, it shows how little the public is educated regarding the benefit the sign language for a large audience of deaf. In the Lutheran and Episcopal Churches, prayers and all service required is carried out the same way. Perhaps others too—we have not visited all.

Mrs. Thomas Kenney has gone to her home in Mississippi to attend a family reunion.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Fritz spent the Fourth of July in Toledo.

NEW JERSEY.

PICNIC OF THE JERSEY CITY FRATS.

The Jersey City Division, No. 91, N. F. S. D., held its annual Picnic at Floral Park, North Bergen, N. J., Saturday afternoon and evening, July 17th.

In the afternoon, the attendance was not ample enough for the Committee of Arrangements to pull off the games, so this was postponed till evening, when the crowd began to pour in from all quarters of the State, New York and Brooklyn.

There was to have been a baseball game, but it was given up, as the playing field had been cut up, evidently half of it sold for development purposes, as at this section of the "Skeeter" City, as Jersey City is often called, the price of real estate is going up.

The committee, however, did all in their power to run off the rest of the program they mapped out, and it is not their fault that all the games were not carried off, because when events, including the tug-of-war, were announced there wasn't any response.

The Judges of the Games were Messrs. Joe Graham, representing the Bronx Frats, Charles Casella, the Newark Frats, and Anthony Capelle, the Deaf-Mutes' Union League.

Cash prizes were awarded to the following winners in the only games carried out:

Ball throwing (Ladies)—Won by Miss Jessie Casterline. Miss Eva Seigel was second.

Fifty Yards Dash (Ladies)—Won by Miss Casterline. Miss Viola Savercool was a close second.

Fifty Yards Dash (Men)—Won easily by C. Bradley. John Kostyk, a youth of Fanwood, who is a member of the Margraf A. C., was second.

Those present, as aforesaid, came from all sections of the State, and brought their families along, including their parents and the kiddies, consequently there was present quite a number of the little folks. Though they are possessed of all their faculties, yet they are adepts at the language used by the deaf—signs, and many of them used very beautiful gestures of the language invented for the deaf by De l'Epee.

As in nearly every outing of this kind, when friend met friend, they recounted events that happened since they last met.

There were some who resided about five miles near the recent explosion at Denmark Lake, and they told how their homes were shaken, as if by an earthquake, and how many of their windows and doors were broken; 'twas sad, indeed, to listen to these.

At other groups, those who owned autos recounted the fine trips they have had so far this season.

By the way, there was seven autos on the grounds belonging to the deaf, besides a motorcycle, six of the autos belonging to New Jersey silents, who took their families, or a parties to the picnic. One auto came from New York, as also, did the motorcycle.

There was a party of four, who formerly all lived in St. Louis, and the adage "birds of the same feathers flock together," was true in this case, as they recounted past events of by gone days in St. Louis. This group consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Lynch, and two others.

The large pavilion was the scene of merry-making. It has a very large dancing floor, and dancing was kept up all afternoon and evening.

There were other attractions, such as County Fair, trying your strength merry-go-round, and several others, which attracted the attention of many.

NEW YORK.

News items for this column should be sent direct to the DEAF-MUTES' JOURNAL, Station M, New York.

A few words of information in a letter or postal card is sufficient. We will do the rest.

The date of the "Brooklyn Frat" Picnic is fast approaching. On August 21st, all the roads will lead to Ulmer Park Athletic Field. The committee has succeeded in getting the two of the best school teams of New York, to engage in a baseball game. They will be the Margraf A. C., composed of Fanwood boys. Their antagonists will be the N. Y. Silents, which is composed of St. Joseph's Westchester boys. Undoubtedly, the game will prove a great attraction to the younger generation. A silver cup will go to the winning team.

There will also be a Charleston contest with cash prizes, for those who are more inclined in the art of Terpsichore.

Read the advertisement on the fourth page for the rest of the program.

Miss Katharine A. McGirr writes: "I am spending a pleasant three weeks vacation up here at this beautiful camp, at Forest Gramercy Avenue, Rye, N. Y. Miss Grace L. Groody, my guide, is with me. Last night we had a hayride and much jollity and laughter, singing and making enough noise to reach New York City. We went to Stratford, Ct., and back again. This is a most beautiful place not far from Port Chester, and I go bathing every day with my guide in Pakland Beach. We have swings, hammock, etc. Out on the lawn, there is a lovely summer house with rustic furniture. There are twenty rooms and a big shower bath for washing salt off when returning from bathing. I am very well and happy here, as it is so nice and cool. We have lots of entertainments and dancing, singing and parties. I shall return to the city on July 19th, where I shall resume my work."

Among the passengers sailing on the Cunard liner "Majestic" for Southampton last Saturday, were Miss Mabel M. Johns and her sister, Mrs. Lucien Kirtland, of Bronxville, who are to join their mother in Paris, and remain until October. Popular and prominent in oral circles, Miss Johns has crossed the big pond so often she has lost track of the count. A few evenings previous to sailing, Miss Johns was entertained at a farewell dinner at a well-known downtown restaurant, after which the party adjourned to the apartment of Mrs. Katherine Meinken, where a pleasant evening was spent.

Benjamin Shafrenak, who has been steadily employed as a compositor ever since he left school several years ago, lost his job in June, as his boss retired from business, and the summer months are the duller in the printing line. Benjamin has taken advantage of visiting his sister in New Hampshire. He took along his basket ball togs, sweater and overcoat, as the weather is much cooler in that part of the country than in New York in the summer time. He stated before leaving that he intend to limber up to be in top condition for the forthcoming basketball season, and perhaps engage in some sports up there.

Mr. J. C. Underwood, a fortnight ago took his family to a summer resort in Massachusetts, and in order to attend the Jersey City Frats Picnic motored during the night, and says that the going was pleasant, as only few autos were out and there was no crowding or delay of any sort. Mr. Underwood was looking fine, and informed the writer that he expects to settle in Massachusetts ere long, as the atmosphere there is more to his liking than his present Long Island home.

The following is taken from the Home News, of Saturday, July 17th: "Assistant District Attorney Willie Schwartz had a hard time in court the other day when the complainant and defendant in a grand larceny case turned out to be deaf-mutes. The hearing lasted nearly two hours, and the interpreter had to rub his wrists with liniment afterward."

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zeiss and daughter, Sefira, spent the July 4th week-end holiday in Stamford, Ct., as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Goldstone. At Roton Point, the well-known seashore resort of Connecticut, they had the pleasure of meeting Mr. William Van Tassel.

Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Levy, of Brooklyn, N. Y., are spending a week's vacation in the heart of Catskill Mountains, where Mr. Byck lives. They witnessed the terrible fire that destroyed the Twilight Inn, at Haines Falls, three miles from Tannersville.

Joe F. Graham, of the Bronx, is to take a two weeks vacation in August, and has decided to go by boat to Miami, Fla., where his brother lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles McManus announce the engagement of their daughter, Edna Grace, to Mr. Herbert Douglas Engel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cascella, who have lived for many years in Newark, N. J., have moved to Manhattan, New York, in the section known as Washington Heights, and not far from St. Ann's Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Friedman spent two weeks in Philadelphia, beginning July 3d, with relatives. They say that so far the Sesqui-Centennial Exposition is fine and worth seeing.

Mr. Randal McClelland, of Mt. View, N. J., has been we are sorry to chronicle quite sick of late. His many friends earnestly hope that he will speedily recover and be himself again.

Mrs. Wm. Lipgens is sojourning at the Lake George home of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Pfeiffer, where she is enjoying all that goes with life at that cool resort.

Adolph Pfandler is now in the Knickerbocker Hospital, where he will perhaps be operated upon, after the X-Ray taken shows what his ailment is.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. McCluskey, Jr., who were married recently, are touring in Yellowstone Park.

Mrs. Henry Peters and baby are summering at Asbury Park, N. J. Henry spends the week-end there.

Miss Augusta Berley has left town for Walden, N. Y., on her two weeks vacation.

Portland, Oregon.

DEATH OF MRS. H. WIRTH

Portland deaf bowed their heads in deep sorrow when the shocking news came of the death of Mrs. H. Wirth, on Sunday night, June 6th, from an attack of heart failure. Mrs. Wirth attended the morning service at the Hope Lutheran Church for Deaf, which she became a member of last May. After church service she, together with members of her family, took a trip to Salem, returning home in the evening, feeling in the best of health. Returning early that Sunday evening, Mrs. Wirth took her bath. Before falling asleep, she asked her husband to help her pick raspberries in the morning, to which Mr. Wirth agreed. Monday morning Mr. Wirth woke up at six o'clock. Turning to his wife, he found her cold, and shaking her, she did not move. Mr. Wirth got alarmed and called a friend, who found Mrs. Wirth had died during the night.

The funeral was held on Friday, June 11th, from the Lutheran Church. The funeral service was conducted by Rev. Eickmann. The church was overcrowded, and the casket was covered deep with all kinds of beautiful flowers. The funeral was delayed till Friday to await the arrival of her daughter, Mrs. Geors, from Chicago, Ill. They also have one son living in Portland. Mrs. Wirth was an active church worker, and also was a member of the S. F. L. Ladies Club of Portland. Mrs. Wirth, on account of her kind and gentle disposition won many friends in Portland, and always loved to help and do good to the less fortunate. And in her death we feel the loss of a faithful and loving friend. Our deep sympathy goes out to the grief-stricken husband. Mr. Wirth has left Portland to make his home with his daughter in Chicago, but may return in a few years.

The engagement is announced of Miss Allie Campbell to Chester LaFave. They are both graduates from the Salem Deaf School.

Mr. Leonard Ward met with an accident recently by scalding his foot, but at time of this writing is cooled off.

Mr. and Mrs. John Skogland, of Spokane, Wash., who was a visitor in Portland recently, left here for Seattle for a call, after which he will return to the Inland Empire City.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Hoffman, of Terre Bella, Cal., are visiting his mother and sister, who live in Portland. They spent two weeks in June, then returned to the Southern town. Mr. Hoffman really loved the beautiful Rose City, but his job in California is a good paying job, and Portland has nothing for strangers in these dull times.

Miss Ruth Eden, formerly of the Oral School at Portland, was married on June 2d, to Mr. Ed. Levy, a hearing man. They will make their home at Lake Grove, Ore.

About thirty deaf called and surprised Mrs. F. Metcalf recently, for a reception in honor of her 32d year as a teacher of the deaf. She has taught both sign and oral. Mrs. M. has resigned, or rather say retired, from the work on account of her health, as she is unable to get around on account of her crippled condition. Mrs. Metcalf after nearly twenty years as interpreter for the deaf at the Church of the Stranger also retires from that position on account of her condition. No other person could be loved more by the Portland deaf than Mrs. Metcalf. And she loved all the deaf and has always been a help to them when they were in trouble of any kind. Mrs. M. is a hearing lady, but her father and mother were deaf-mutes. It is likely she will be succeeded at the church by her daughter, Mrs. Alice Clarke, who is well known by Portland deaf, and is a teacher at the Washington State Deaf School at Vancouver, Wash.

A surprise was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson at McMinnville, Oregon, on Saturday night, June 12th. All stayed over night except Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Lynch. A good time and good eats were given. Those who came from Portland, were: Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Reichle, Mr. and Mrs. W. Thierman, Miss Helen Moller, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Nelson, Mr. LaMotte, Ralph and Raymond Reichle and William Thierman.

Portland Division, No. 41 N. E. S. D., had its first banquet for members and their ladies on Wednesday night, June 16th, in honor of the fourteenth anniversary of its installation, and over one hundred were at the tables at the beautiful Banquet Hall of the new $300,000 W. O. W. Hall. Mr. C. H. Linde was toastmaster of the evening. Mr. Line, Portland's first Frat and President, spoke of the hardship in keeping the members together fourteen years ago. Mr. Chas. Lawrence with his choir sang in signs, "The Boys of 41." Mr. T. A. Lindstrom, of Salem, Ore., gave an interesting talk on insurance, "To Have and To Hold." Mr. Gustav Torgerson, of St. Paul, Minn., spoke on "Fraternal Spirit." Miss Ethel Morton sang her favorite song, "Yankee Doodle," which was a real treat to all. Mr. M. Werner, of Salem, talked on "How I Feel When with No. 41." Then came the song, "O Oregon," by Mrs. J. O. Reichle. Deputy Nelson spoke on "For the good of the Portland Division," which has now nearly 85 members, and he wants to see one hundred before he is out of office as deputy. J. O. Reichle talked on "Why I Joined 41," and also outlined the need of a National Convention in Portland in the future.

Mr. Coates, a recent arrival from San Francisco, Cal., spoke for the benefit of the order. Mrs. B. L. Craven sang in signs, "America." The big event ended with free for all funny stories.

Eastern Iowa

On June 20th last, occurred the marriage in Minneapolis, Minn., of Mr. Harry D. Keasal, of Chicago, Ill., and Miss Celina D. Gordon, of Minneapolis, Minn., at the bride's parents' home. After the marriage they honeymooned to Dubuque, Ia., where they spent a few days, then to Davenport, Ia., where they were cordially entertained by Mr. and Mrs. B. Jennisch, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Webb, of Rock Island, Ill., and Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Sharrar, of Davenport, Ia. This writer drove them around in Davenport one afternoon. The couple extended their appreciation to those who entertained them so immensely, and we all wish them prosperity and happiness in their married life.

July 4th, Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ostenberg, of Davenport, Ia., and Mr. and Mrs. Bertil Jennisch, of Rock Island, and Miss Eaton, of Moline, Ill., motored in the former's car to Springfield, Ill., 194 miles in 6 1/2 hours, where they spent two days in the picnic. An enjoyable trip and time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Bradney and Mr. Owen R. Calkins, of Rock Island, Ill., motored to Joliet, Ill., to spend the 4th and 5th of July with relatives.

Mr. August Valentine, of Clinton, Ia., and Miss Vida Conway, of Rock Island, Ill., motored to Springfield, Ill., to enjoy themselves with the mates at their picnic.

Clarence Webb, of Rock Island, Ill., motored to Quincy, Ill., and other places to visit during his two weeks' vacation, and spent the 4th of July with the mates at Springfield, Ill.

Mr. C. F. Griffe and brother, of Springfield, Ill., run their business as long distance hauliers. They have two trucks. They haul household goods to points in Illinois, Indiana and other places. They get along comfortably.

Mr. Bernard G. Peschel went to Springfield, Ill., by rail, and enjoyed himself at the picnic on July 4th.

Mr. C. M. Sharrar, of Davenport, Ia., just bought a second-hand Ford touring car. He enjoys with help learning how to drive it.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Schneider, of Davenport, Ia., spent the Fourth with relatives in Chicago, Ill.

Mr. and Mrs. Arnold P. Walliker, of Clinton, Iowa, just moved to Davenport, Ia., where they already have a job in one of the leading Garment Co.

Mr. Harold Christensen is now working at Detroit, Mich., with Kahn and Co., as a draftsman. He quit at Cedar Rapids, Ia., because of poor pay.

FANWOOD.

Principal Gardner left on Friday, July 9th, to visit his brother in Wappingers Falls, and on the following day, Mrs. Gardner and their son, Mr. Esmond, joined him and they then drove to Williamstown, Mass., where they stayed over night. The following day they went to Boston, Mass., and on Monday and Tuesday they toured Cape Cod. Wednesday they were in Falmouth, and Thursday they arrived at Anchor Inn, Nantucket, Mass., where they will spend the balance of their two week's stay.

A good time was had by several pupils and graduates on Saturday, Sunday and Monday last, at Coney Island. Sunday, July 4th, was the birthday of Mr. Jacob Gleicher, who graduated from Fanwood last year.

On Wednesday, July 7th, Mr. Benny Shafrenak, a graduate of 1924, left New York City for New Hampshire to visit his sister. He made a visit at the Printing Office on Tuesday, the 7th.

Robert Schneider returned here on Tuesday, July 6th, after his trip to Philadelphia, Pa., to see his mother. He is employed here as a painter.

Mr. Oliver McInturf, a graduate of Gallaudet College, visited the Printing Office on Friday, the 9th inst.

Mrs. Vorhees, a Fanwood teacher, was a visitor at the Printing Office on the 9th inst.

On the beach at Coney Island, July 11th, a good time was again had by Messrs. Eddie Kerwin, Jacob Gleicher, Herbert Carroll, John Kostyk, Philip Glass, Misses Esther Rosengreen, Lucy Tichenor, Eva Siegel and Flora Christoffer. On the boardwalk of that place, among other deaf-mutes, were Messrs. Louis Cohen, Joseph Krassner, David Retzker, Hymen Rubenstein, Fred Hoffman, Louis Rosen-sweet, John Peterson.

Most of the pupils of Fanwood are having their faces and backs tanned by the summer sun.

A pleasant day was enjoyed at Palisades Park on July 10th, by Messrs. Joseph Mazzola, Robert Fitting, Misses Jessie Garrick, Edna Purdy, Ethel Brennisson, Frank Heintz, Herbert Carroll, Richard Giordana, Perry Schwing and Viola Schwing. They all went swimming in the pool, Miss Patsy Schuleador, former pupil of Gallaudet School for the deaf, was with them. Charles Klein, a graduate of Fanwood two years ago, was a spectator.

Miss Agnes Craig left for Philadelphia on Saturday, July 17th. After a few days in that city, where she expects to see some of the exhibits of the Sesqui-centennial, she will spend the rest of her vacation in Atlantic City, N. J.

Lieut. Wm. H. Edwards returned from St. Luke's Hospital to the Institution on Saturday.

At the Jersey City Frats' Picnic, at Floral Park, North Bergen, Jersey City, on Saturday afternoon and evening, there was a large delegation of Fanwood boys and girls. Notably among them was a large number of the Margraf Association youths, who were disappointed that there was no base ball game or field games, but they were nevertheless among the merriest of those present.

Last Sunday, the Margraf team lost a baseball game to the Panama "Cubs" team in the 5th inning, when the rain stopped the game in Jamaica, L. I. It was hot game and the score was 8 to 7. Three Margraf players were not at present, so three hearing boys were chosen. Eddie Kerwin, a lefty pitcher for Margraf, pitched very good.

On July 4th Messrs. Kaple Greenberg and Natale Cerniglio, both graduates of Fanwood this year and William Wyatt, a pupil, went to visit the Gallaudet Home, and were shown around that place and were interested in it and its inmates.

Mr. Kaple Greenberg will go to Gallaudet College next September.

On Friday, 16th inst., Samuel Grossman was here.

On Monday, the 19th inst., Mr. Emil Mulfeldt, a graduate of Fanwood some years ago, visited the Printing Office.

Frank Heintz, a pupil here, has been discharged from the St. Luke's Hospital, after the removal of an obstruction from his nose.

Mr. Chas. Bauer, of San Francisco, is in Portland, visiting and will take his wife back with him. Mrs. Bauer has been in Portland for six months or more. They both are former Portlanders. Mrs. Bauer's father died last winter.

OHIO.

July 17, 1926—The picnic given by the Cleveland Automobile Club, Akron Advance Society and Pennsylvania Club of Akron at Springfield Lake, a few miles out of Akron, on the 11th inst., proved a drawing card. The weather could not have been more favorable, for it was not of the sweltering sort July generally dishes out. Old Sol had full sway, but was tempered by a cooling breeze the day long. Then the park, with its shade trees and a large open field for games, the lake clear and smooth, permitting rowing and swimming, a fine large dancing pavilion, various amusements, refreshment stands to provide for the hungry and thirsty in the way of soft drinks, plenty of long tables and benches under trees and under roof.

Columbus had a delegation of twenty-six, part of it going up Saturday afternoon by auto, the others Sunday morning by train, for the round trip was only $2.75, several also started early by auto—Cleveland, Toledo, Pittsburgh, Detroit, Alliance, Mansfield, and nearby towns. Among the Pittsburghers were Messrs. Havens, Grimm, Friend, and Mr. and Mrs. Wm. L. Sawhill.

To the credit of the deaf, it can be said the whole affair was orderly throughout, it partaking more of a reunion, getting together and having a good talk, with some contests in the afternoon to enliven the occasion or adding a little spice.

There were between three and four hundred deaf people in attendance, not counting the kiddies, and there was quite a number of them having an enjoyable time among themselves and the dads were generous in handing out nickels and dimes to appease their wants for candy and pop. The writer did not reach the grounds till noon, so did not see the game of ball played between the Detroit, Mich., Association and the C. A. P. team nor hear of the result.

Quite a number brought along eats and shared them with visitors from a distance, both at noon and evening, and the writer is under obligations in this respect to Mr. and Mrs. Steel and their daughter. They served several other guests from Pennsylvania, and we are also indebted to Mr. Steel for a ride back to Akron in the evening.

After dinner, the crowd had its picture taken out in the open field, and following it, these contests were enacted, some of them creating a great deal of fun, the winners being rewarded with a free ticket to one of the many amusements on the place.

Love Letter race for 15 men.
50 yard running race for ladies.
Boy Scout's game for men.
Crown race for ladies.
Obstacle race for two teams of boys.
Snucker's race for ladies.
Shoptut race for men.

A good many tried their skill in finding the "Mystery Woman," who proved to be Mrs. Callahan, of Cleveland, Ohio, and Clyde Thompson was the lucky man.

During the dinner hour, short addresses were made by Mr. Kreigh B. Ayres and Mr. Frank Kyle, president of the Akron Auto Club of America, which was interpreted by Mr. Moore. Mr. Ayres, president of the Akron Advance Society, was the generalissimo of the picnic, with these aids: Cleveland Committee, Messrs. P. D. Munger and Wm. Meade, Akron committee, Messrs. D. C. Williams and Frank Bauer, Pennsylvania Committee, Wm. Williams and J. Cherrington. They certainly had a big job and performed it well too.

One thousand C. A. P. buttons were disposed of at two for a quarter. After all expenses are paid, the balance will be divided between three societies and given to worthy causes. Homes for Deaf, in Ohio and Pennsylvania will be beneficiaries.

While in Akron, it was reported that Mr. Alfred Monnin, of Canton, met with a serious accident, near his home, on the evening of July 5th. He had attended a picnic of the deaf during the day. When alighting from the car to cross the street, the fire chief, answering a fire call, came dashing along at breakneck speed, knocking Mr. Monnin down. When picked up, it was found he had received a cut across the lower jaw, requiring a number of stitches. One of his knees badly fractured and also bruises to one of his shoulders.

Mr. Monnin is a well-known and respected citizen of Canton, where he has lived all his life. He is seventy-two years old, was educated in the State School for Deaf, graduating in 1875, and is also a member of the Board of Managers of the Home for Deaf.

His many deaf friends will regret to hear of his misfortune and at the same time hope that he will recover from it. He and Mrs. Monnin had intended to be at the Akron picnic.

The aged mother of Mr. Wm. M. Toomey, Canton, Ohio, died on the 10th inst., from the effects of an operation for gallstones. Such was the information brought to Akron Sunday, by deaf people from that place. We are sure Mr. Toomey will have the sincere sympathy of his many Ohio and Kentucky friends in the loss he has sustained.

Miss Bessie M. Edgar and sister have gone to stay a while with a nephew in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mrs. Wm. L. Sawhill, of Pittsburgh, will remain a week longer in Akron with her son and other relatives.

COLUMBUS NOTES

Under the auspices of the Columbus Branch Gallaudet College Alumni Association, a picnic was held on the grounds of the school on July 5th. About one hundred spent the day there, mostly in talk and renewing acquaintances. Besides a goodly number of Columbus deaf, Cleveland, Cincinnati, Akron, Springfield, Bellaire, Zanesville, and Portsmouth had representatives present. Noon and evening lunches were on sale, besides ice cream and soft drinks. It was good orderly crowd. About four o'clock in the afternoon a heavy rainstorm came on, lasting about half an hour, and everyone had to seek shelter in the girls' recreation hall, where the rest of the day was passed.

Mrs. Alonzo J. Hogue, with relatives of this city, was a visitor at the picnic, and was introduced to people who did not know her by Mr. J. B. Showalter. Her maiden name was Corwin and she was educated in the Missouri School. Among those she recalled there were Superintendent Kerr and the late Dr. Tate and several teachers. Her husband received his education in the Ohio School, entering it in 1869. After their marriage, they made their home in Georgia, where they lived for some years. Mrs. Hogue is a widow now. We were not told when her husband died. The branch realized nearly thirty dollars, which will go to the E. M. Gallaudet Fund.

Messrs. Wm. H. Zorn, Joseph Neutzing, foreman of the shoeshop, Lewis LaFountain, are assisting in doing the vacation work in and about the school. Mr. Beckert, boys' supervisor, was also recalled from his vacation to assist, in addition one or two pupils are helping.

Messrs. Crossen and Inman, of the cabinet shop, will have plenty of work, meanwhile, making and repairing furniture and assisting the carpenters.

John Walker, of Akron, and Lloyd Corey of the same place, but educated in the Kentucky School, are having a week's vacation from the rubber plant where they are employed. They came to Columbus Wednesday in an auto, calling upon friends, but will go back in Saturday and resume work Monday.

A number of Columbus Deaf will be in Akron on the 11th and attend the Cleveland-Akron-Pennsylvania picnic, staged at Spring Lake for that day.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Moreland, of Steubenville, Ohio, are in Columbus for a week visiting the latter's parents.

Murr Whitacre and Miss Glada Morrison, both of Cyent, and former pupils of the Ohio School, were married July 3d, 1926. They will be at home, 3333 Monroe Avenue, Toledo, Ohio. It was not stated who married them.

A card, bearing a painted station in colors and surmounted by a stork, sent out the following and received by a friend here.

Broad Casting Station Stork, at Sao Paulo, Brazil, South America: "Mr. and Mrs. John J. Graham announce the arrival of Richard John at 10 p.m., on June 17th 1926." Which means that Mr. Richard L'H. Long, of Chicago, Ill., was then and there given the title of granddaddy.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Walton and son and Miss Alta Charlton, of Toledo, were visitors at the school last Saturday to say goodbye to Superintendent Jones and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Walton have sold their home, Toledo home, and on the 11th of this month start for California, where they will reside.

The change was made for the benefit of Mr. Walton's health. Their many Ohio friends will regret their departure, for they are fine people, loved and admired for their fine qualities that go to making friends. The best of wishes go with them from those who know them. Mr. Walton since graduating from the school has been engaged in the dry cleaning business. Whether he will follow that occupation out west, we are not informed, nor the location of their new home.

Ex.

Mr. Gustav Torgerson, of St. Paul, Minn., who was in Portland, Ore., for a few months, looking for a suitable job, but failed to get what he wanted, left for Spokane, Wash., where a job was offered him in a flour mill. Mr. Torgerson was well liked by many Portland deaf. He had a jolly disposition and fine manners, and we are sorry a job could not be found, so he could stay here as he said it was a real beautiful scenic country. Come again, Gustav, some day. Portland will have what you want.

Mrs. Lila Fromm, of San Francisco, Cal., but formerly of Portland, is spending a couple of months visiting in Portland. She is accompanied by her two sons, Tom and Robert.

PHILADELPHIA

The Philadelphia Local Branch, P. S. A. D., held its stated monthly meeting at All Souls' Parish House on Saturday evening, July 17th. Some business was first transacted, after which Mr. Albert Berg gave a reading of Pericles, Prince of Tyre. The delivery was so good that it was greatly enjoyed by those present, and Mr. Berg was given a hearty vote of thanks.

We are sorry to report that Mrs. William E. Irvin, of Collingswood, N. J., suffered a slight stroke of paralysis on the left side on Saturday, 3d last. She had been busy that day with her housework until she, weakened by the stroke, fell on the floor. Owing to it, she is taking an enforced rest, and her friends hope for her recovery in due time. Mrs. Irvin is a graduate of the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf.

Mrs. Sara Scott, of near Merchantville, N. J., also a graduate of the Pennsylvania Institution, has been suffering weak spells for some time. She is living with a sister.

The Rev. F. C. Smielau was in the city recently.

Mrs. Harper, hearing sister of Miss Dora Kintzel, died on July 2d, last. Our sincere sympathy is extended to Miss Dora, who now will likely live with her nephew.

Mrs. Helen R. Wilson is again summering with her folks at Atlantic City, as she has done yearly for a number of years past.

Mr. and Mrs. Greensbury Warrington are at present arranging to buy the house they live in, 3231 Hartville Street, through a building and loan association.

Mrs. Joseph S. Rodgers' mother, aged 78, has been quite seriously ill for two weeks past, but seems out of danger now.

Mrs. Ruth Z. Galey, the niece of Mr. Robert M. Ziegler, with whom he lives, asks us to publish the names and amounts of the contributions to the A. L. E. Crouter picture, presented to the Home for the Aged and Infirm Deaf. So here they are:—

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hockley 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Ponomesth 1 00
Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Fahnestock 1 00

The total collection amounted to $56.05. Of this amount, $14.50 represents the amount left by the Pleasure Seeker's Club on disbanding some time ago. Mrs. Galey thinks that Mr. Wm. H. Lipsett should be given a good bit of credit for his helpful part in raising the money. And the writer thinks Mrs. Galey deserves even more credit for her warm interest in the Home. And lastly, Mrs. Galey, for herself and on behalf of the club she represented, warmly thanks all who so kindly contributed towards the above object.

Mr. Abraham Silnutzer and three other deaf-mutes, whose names we did not get, motored from Los Angeles, Cal., to Philadelphia (3292 miles), which they covered in sixteen days. The arrival seemed timed for the last meeting of Philadelphia Division, No. 30, which he attended, surprising his many friends there. He is an ex-member of No. 30, and his old friends were certainly glad to see him again.

Mr. William L. Davis, Treasurer of No. 30, N. F. S. D., is gradually recovering from his injuries, received by being run down by an auto-truck, in the latter part of July. However, it may be some time yet before he will be able to return to work. A second hearing will be held before the magistrate that has his case.

Rev. W. M. Smaltz returned to the city to take the Communion Service on Sunday, the 18th. After that day, he left again, to be gone until the end of his vacation. He is due back early in August.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Friedman, of New York City, spent two weeks with relatives in Philadelphia early this month. They attended the indoor picnic at All Souls' Parish House on July 5th, and seemed to enjoy their visit.

For information about the P. S. A. D. convention in August, see the advertisement on the back page of the JOURNAL, for we are not in a position to add to it.

GENERAL INFORMATION.

Board and Lodging during the period of the Convention can be obtained by Members and invited guests only at the Institution.

Reservations for rooms must be made in advance. For reservations write to Mr. Charles A. Keep, Care of Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf, Mt. Airy, Phila., Pa. Be sure to state how many persons, length of time, etc. Make application before July 15th, 1926,—no reservations guaranteed after that date.

The price of a Season Ticket is ten dollars, which includes membership dues, souvenir of the Convention etc., as well as Board and Lodging. Members are advised to purchase season tickets, as individual rates are proportionately higher.

Every assistance will be given visitors to the Convention who, at its close, intend to visit the N. A. D. Convention at Washington, starting August 9th. But a written request for reservations will be required, and will be filled in the order received. Inasmuch as this Convention will be unusually well attended, persons desiring accommodations should act at once.

By order of the Committee on Arrangements.

WARREN M. SMALTZ,
Chairman.
